

On June 2nd I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. Previous FCC actions allowing enormous consolidation in radio ownership have done little for the public good. We already have way too much concentration of media power in the hands of way too few media owners. The threat to democracy is very real. You are dealing with a public resource, so please serve that public, not the private interests of the media monopolies.